

Northwest
biofuels association

a non-profit trade association representing the business interests of the biofuels industry

WHO

All Biofuels & Related Products

- Biodiesel
- Ethanol
- Bio-lubricants, co-products, etc.

The Production & Distribution Chain, Trade Allies & Supporters

- Producers, Distributors, Retailers
- Service Providers (engineering, law, equipment, construction)
- Associates (government, education, NGOs, users)

The Northwest Region

- Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington
- Linked by common fuel stock issues

WHAT

Promote the Growth of the Biofuels Market

- Reduce market barriers through information, quality standards, joint marketing activities.

Provide a Centralized, Credible Information Source

- Produce and disseminate technical & educational materials for customers, media, regulators, legislators.

Serve as the Voice of the Industry

- Provide representation on committees & forums, work with other organizations & agencies, represent industry to media.

Build the Industry Network

- Provide for information gathering & sharing, networking, policy development, member services.

HOW

Industry Led & Member-Supported

- Memberships coming in across sectors & regions

Grants to Support Startup Phase

- Evergreen Community Development Association
- Oregon Economic & Community Development Department
- US EPA Region 10
-
-

Northwest
biofuels association

If you are part of the Biofuels industry in the Northwest
NWBA is your organization.